Diagram illustrating the layout of a book cover with text boxes and an illustration.

The diagram shows a large rectangular frame containing several text boxes and a central illustration. The text boxes are arranged as follows:

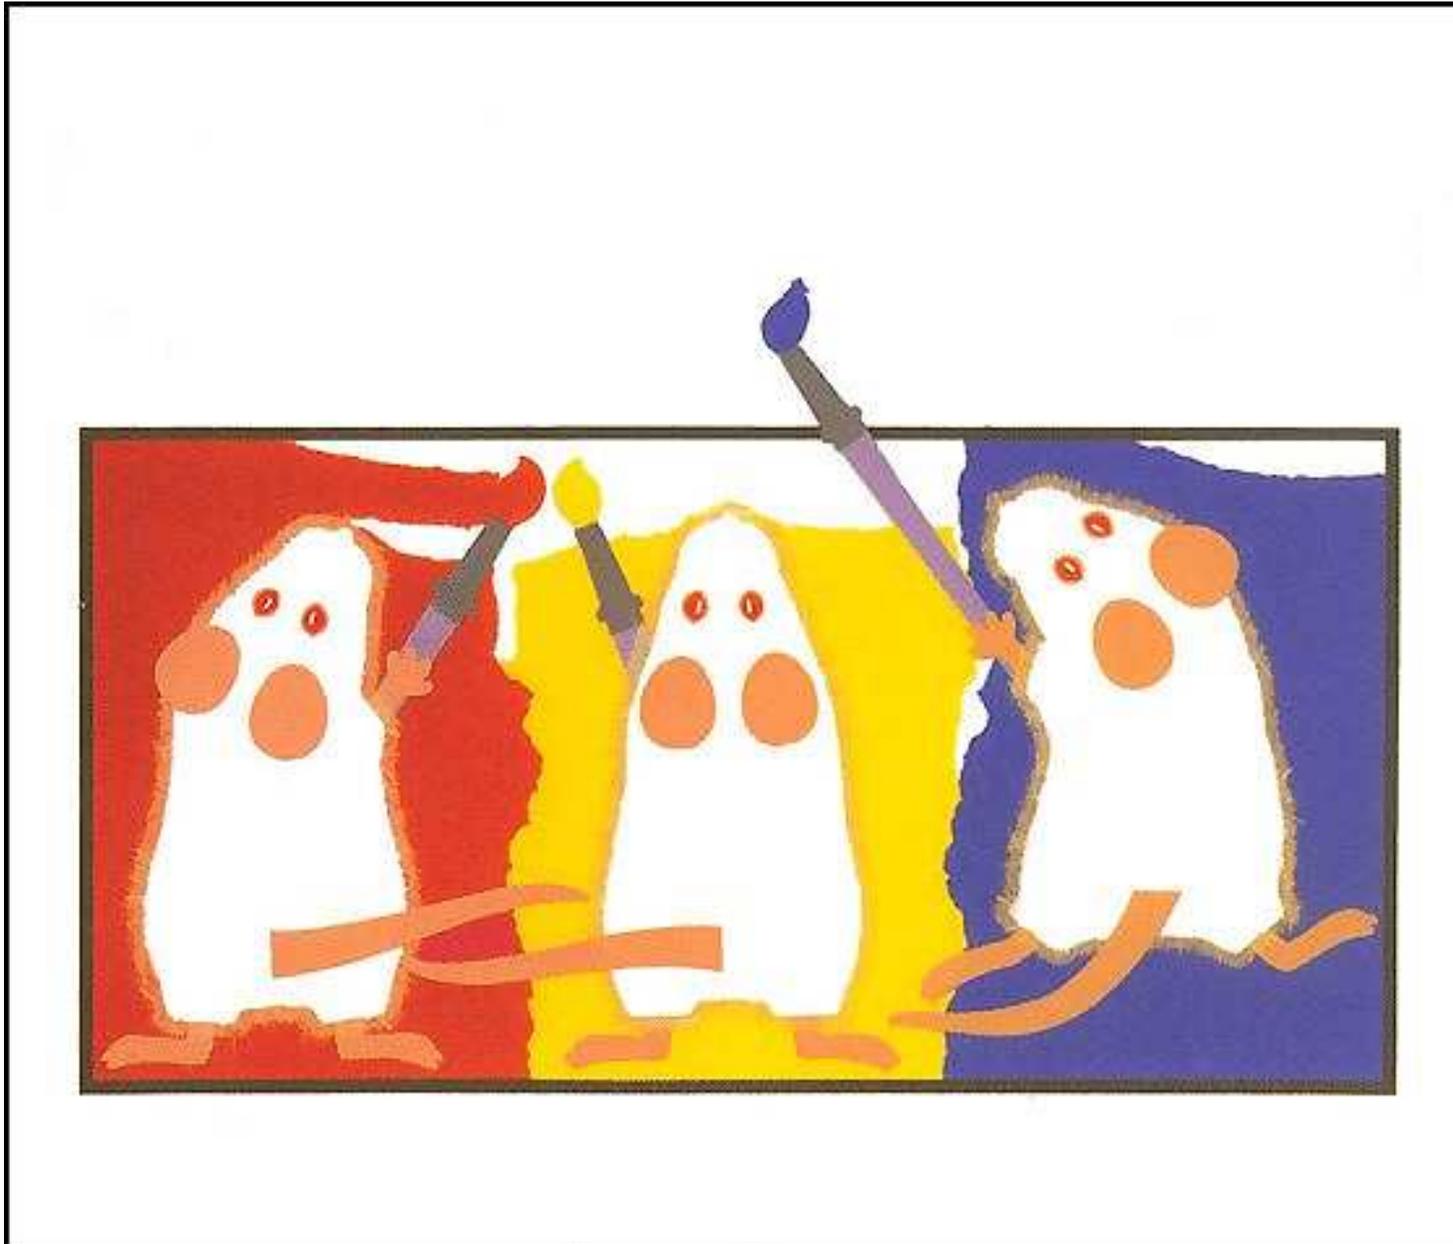

- One box is centered at the top.
- Three boxes are arranged horizontally below the top box.
- One box is centered below the illustration.

The central illustration depicts three stylized white figures with large orange noses and mouths, standing against a background of red, yellow, and blue. Each figure is holding a purple object, possibly a pen or pencil, and appears to be writing or drawing. The figures are positioned in front of a torn paper effect, revealing the background colors.
